Green Things Growing,

BY THE AUTHOR OF "JOHN HALIFAN, GENTLEMAN."

And in the full wealth of their blo

THE HAUNTED HOUSE.

BY MARY KYLE DALLAS.

Haunted houses there are in plenty if stories are to be believed .-

and now lived quite alone, melancholy and unhappy, as one might suppose, but as deeply attached as which we have alluded to being surrounded by several acres of land, and much the more valuable portion of his real estate, was naturally the

It was a great joy to Moses Pockobject of his greatest affection.

very sweetest he had ever known.

quarter day Mrs. Ruff, tenant of his

Mr. Pocketfull: I must leave this aw-

"What reasons have you then?"

"Well," said Mrs. Ruff solemnly

-"believe me or not-the place is took his receipt:

ever to his money bags.

positively haunted.

Volume XXXIII.

MILLINERY.

Miss L. HILL

DEALER IN Straw, Silk, Fancy and MILLINERY GOODS,

CREUZET'S CORNER, GALLIPOLIS, OHIO.

Jan. 16, 1868.—tf. FURNITURE! FURNITURE!-

HOUSE FURNISHING WHOLESALE and retail dealer in GOODS! In large quantities; better assortment and at as Low on Lowes Prices than can be found elsewhere. May always be found at Hay-ward & Fuller's Extensive Ware-rooms.

OUR Building constructed expressly for this business, is kept full of goods by receipts from almost every boat that lands at our wharf. We have the goods and will not be under we have the goods and tout not be under-sold. Do not be persuaded to purchase with-out examining our stock. Corner of Third and State Streets.

HAYWARD & FULLER.

May 30, 1867.

Gallia MEAT MARKET! NEWTON & CO.,

BUTCHERS AND DEALERS IN FRESH MEATS-OF ALL KINDS Sugar-Cured Hams, Smoked Shoulders and Bacon, Pickled-Pork, Lard, Fresh

Pork, Sausage, Bologna Sausage, Dried Beef, Poultry and Game. LISTEAMBOATS SUPPLIED. LANGLEY'S BUILDING, GALLIPOLIS, O.

Nov. 21, 1867.

ROBINSON & BAILEY,

LOWER SIDE

Public Square,

Gallipolis, Ohio.

JONATHAN HAMILTON,

FORWARDING AND

COMMISSION MERCHANT WHARF BOAT,

GALLIPOLIS, OHIO. Having purchased of Messrs. Patten & herwood, the Wharf Boats at Gallipolis, O., would inform the public that he will continue the Forwarding and Commission business and at liberal rates. Oct 4, 1866. Livery and Feed

STABLES! SADDLE AND DRIVING HORSESwith a good line of Carriages and Bug-gies on hand at ALL TIMES.

Farmers Stock of all kinds, cared for on Reasonable Terms. Have a good lot in readi-

Court and Fourth Streets. W. H. McCORMICK. April 18, '67,-tf. ROSS F. STEWART, ness on the corner of

General Insurance AND

REAL ESTATE AGENT; NOTARY PUBLIC AND CONVEYANCER

D'OFFICE-One door west of "Bank." 11 Sales, Purchases or Transfers of Property made, Taxes Paid, Rents Collected and Property Cared for-on small Commission, with Prompt Remittances made. April 11, '67. NATIONAL HOUSE.

Corner of Third and Grape Streets. GALLIPOLIS, OHIO. THIS neat and commodious House having

T been thoroughly renovated and refurnished, is now open for the reception and accommodation of the public under the charge JOHN DUNN, late of the Remington House, Pomeroy, O.,

Who from his long experience in the business feels assured that he will be able to satisfy the most fastidious. The Stage leaves this House daily for the Railroad.

June 21 1866.

J. DUNN.

G. D. McBridg. ROBT. COLEMAN. BLACKSMITHING.

-ay-McBRIDE & COLEMAN, AT FRY'S OLD STAND, CHESHIRE, O. Wagone, Expresses, Buggies, &c., built to suit purchasers. Horse-Shoeing, Repairing and general jobbing done promptly and in a workmanlike manner. SPRINGS MADE AND REPAIRED. Come and see us! Nov. 28, '67.-6m-td*

Wanted, Furs.

SUCH as Mink, Raccoon, Red Fox, Grey Fox, Wild Cat, and Musk Rat. Also, Deer and Sheep skins. For which I will pay a reasonable price in cash. Call at Neal's store, Public Square, Galli-F. M. HOLLOWAY.

Want to Buy! THE undersigned want to purchase Five Hundred Cords of good Wood. The same to be delivered at their Brick Yard, on 2d Street, Gallipolis, Ohio.

G. W. HICKS & CO.

OFFICE—Above Public Square, 2d Street.

Jan. 16, 1868,—1m.

And other Goods in our line; just received at HAYWARD & FULLER'S—Cheap for Cash.

[Dec. 19, 1867.

RAISINS, CURRANTS, PRUNES, CIT-ron, Dates, Dried Cherries, and Candid Lemon, at MORRISON'S.

Choice and Extra

IN 14, 14 and 14 Bbl Sacks, by WHOLE-DEALERS or RETAIL for FAMILY USE, at R. ALESHIRE & Co's.. EUREKA MILLS, GALLIPOLIS, OHIO.

CITY GROCERY.

JOSEPH MORRISON, (SUCCESSOR TO)

MORRISON & DALE,

GROCERIES

-AND-

GALLIPOLIS OHIO. WHERE he will be pleased to see all the old and as many new customers as may call. He has now in store a full stock of Groceries and goods in his line, to which he invites the THANKFUL for past patronage in the Wholesale Grocers, he has secured the latest and improved appliances for extracting Teeth without the slightest pain.

All kinds of Dentistry executed on the shortest notice. Terms reasonable.

Office at his residence on Front Street, opposite the Methodist Church.

Dec. 20, 1866.—tf.

Medical Notice. JOHN MORGAN, M. D., tenders his professional services to the people of Galli-polis and vicinity, hoping by faithful atten-tion to business, to merit a share of this pat-

OFFICE-2d street, above Vanden's new Aug. 9, 1866.-tf.

WESLEY MOLLOHAN. MOLLOHAN& NASH, HENRY HOUSE,

Attorneys at Law.

CHARLESTON, WEST VA. WILL PRACTICE IN KANAWHA, AND ADJOI COUNTIES. COLLECTIONS PROMPT-LY ATTENDED TO. (OFFICE OVER SHIELDS.)

Feb. 15, 1866,-tf.

Simeon Nash & Son. ATTORNEYS AND COUNSELLORS AT LAW, Gallipolis, Ohio.

OFFICE:-At Residence on Front Street May 16, 1867.

NEW STORE

GOODS

C. C. WEIBERT & CO.

HAVE OPENED IN THE BUILDING Corner 2d and Court St's. (MENAGER'SO LD STAND)

A Large and Complete Stock

Groceries. &c.,

IF Which will be sold as low as the lowest. [] Our country friends especially, are invited to call and see us. Aug. 1, 1867.—tf.

FIRST NATIONAL

BANK

GALLIPOLIS.

EDWARD DELETOMBE L. PERRY, VICE PRESIDENT GEO. W. JACKSON. CASHIER.

Capital Stock, $100,000. Flour, Wheat,

DIRECTORS:-EDWARD DELETOMRE, REUBEN ALESHIRE, I. R. CALOHAN, Da. S. C. Bailey. Buys Gold, Silver, U. S. Bonds, Coupons and Government securities of all kinds. Bank open from 10 A. M. to 3 P. M. HENRING'S BUILDING, UP STAIRS, GEO. W. JACKSON, Cashier.
Feb. 15. 1866.

A Large Assortment of Furniture.

DR. D. W. CLANCEY

tenders his professional services to the citi-zens of Gallia county and vicinity. Has all the essential modern improvements and is the essential modern improvements and is prepared to do anything coming within the province of Dental Surgery. Special atten-tion paid to Filling Teeth and Dental thera-

Teeth Extracted WITHOUT PAIN! by the use of Protoxide of Nitrogen (Laugh- Many, many a summer of my green things growing Gas) and Spray of Ether.

Satisfaction as represented, or no pay.

Office:—Public Square, one door from Bailey & Maguet's Drug Store.

Office hours, from 8 o'clock A. M. to 4 P. M.

Those coming from a distance will be If I may change into green things growing, waited on any time. Dec. 12, 1867. WM. S. NEWTON, M. D.,

Attends Calls in the City. AT ALL HOURS. Particular Attention given to Surgery

OFFICE :- IN POST-OFFICE. Gallipolis, Nov. 7, 1867. Dr. BLAGG'S

CONSTITUTIONAL RESTORATIVE CURES--DYSPEPSIA, DISEASES OF THE INDIGESTION, KIDNEY AND BLADDER Will remove pimples and blotches from the sputed to be exceedingly careful, if Satan were there in proper person, lar with a babe but a few days oldface, beautifies the complexion, builds up and instance in most miserly, in pecuniary matters, he would "pray him out," moved in There, for a year, she had been hid-invigorates the broken-down constitution, and and whose fondness for money was is the cheapest cure of Syphilis ever present-ed to the public; and, I will give fifty dollars spendthrift, son and a daughter who ($50) for a single case that it will not cure and entirely eradicate from the system. Try it and see. SENT BY MAIL. [7]

Single Bottle, $1.00 Postage Twelve " 9.00 Direct-Box 126, Gallipolis, Ohio.

Nov. 7. 1867-6m* Authorized Claim Agency. LEWIS NEWSOM,

GALLIPOLIS, OHIO. Continues to prosecute all descriptions of claims for pensions, back pay and bounty due to heirs of deceased soldiers. Claims for all descriptions of Quartermaster and Commissary stores taken, and used by the army of the United States, whether receipts were given or not. Claims when withheld from sol-diers on being discharged, for back pay or bounty, for all claims for naval services and prize money, and all other claims growing out of the military in any of the wars in which the United States has been engaged. LEWIS NEWSOM, Authorized Claim Agent. Oet 11, 1866 .- tf

BOOK AGENT,

-AND DEALER IN-

CINCINNATI Dailies, Weekly and Monthly Periodicals, School Books, Stationery and Notions. SECOND STREET, ABOVE STATE. GALLIPOLIS OHIO.

ful house." "Awful house!" cried Moses .-Why, what is the matter with it?" "Matter?" cried Mrs. Ruff. "Oh, WAGONS! WAGONS!! WAGONS!!! if you only could live here at night TO BE HAD AT MEIKLE'S rensons." WAGON SHOP. NEAR THE WOOLEN FACTORY, ALWAYS READY TO HITCH TO.

STRAW

Ribbons and Laces.

GALLIPOLIS, OHIO.

-AND-

R. ALESHIRE & CO.

DEALERS IN

Mill-Feed, &c.

CASH FOR WHEAT

EUREKA MILLS,

GALLIPOLIS, OHIO.

American House!

THIS HOUSE, situated on Locust Street, opposite the Court House, is always open for the accommodation of day and week boarders, on terms as reasonable as any house in the city.

C. D. WALL.

May 9, 1867.-tf.

Dec. 19, 1867 ----

Agency also for the renowned ly, and warranted

haunted." "You've gone crazy," said Moses. Prince's Metallic Paint STILL ON HAND. Latest! but not Least.

Miss Mary E. Bryan, ful object seen by Mrs. Ruff herself kitchen, retired and slept. at midnight-a tall spectre, of which she could not speak without terror-FASHIONABLE MILLINERY, a woman who carried a baby in her arms, both wailing woefully. "And stay I can't, Mr. Pocke:full," cried old Pockettull.

said the lady; "so I'm going to-mor-AND FANCY GOODS, row, and shall sleep at my sister's slumbers by cries of terror from his to-night, for brave that ghost again I never will.

SECOND ST., ABOVE SHERMAN HOUSE, crossed the threshold of one of his leaving him quite alone. houses, away the Ruff's moved, and, HAS Just Received a large Spring Stock of the Latest and most Fashionable goods in the above line to be found, which moreover, the neighborhood was on the qui vive in regard to the ghost goods in the above line to be busines, and will be shown to callers with pleasure, and No one perhaps really felt story. sold at extremely low prices.

All work in line, done to order promptconvinced that anything had been seen; but the house was under an evil ban from that day, and Moses Pocketfull found it hard to let it.

Florence Sewing Machine At last, however, a German with s large family arrived in the place, and without question hired the house of LAMB KNITTING MACHINE: its owner. He knew no one and had Each the best of its kind in use. Instrucnever heard the ghost story, and betions and information given on all points of the above Machines—which with the other ing a fat, rosy fellow with no imagination, was as safe a tenant for a merits of my Establishment, the Ladies of house full of edd noises as could be Gallipolis and vicinity are respectfully in-vited to calt and test for themselves. imagined.

He paid a month's rent in advance, brought to the dwelling his frau and ten children, his chairs, tables, clothes presses, trombone, piane, and lager beer kegs, and declared his intention "never to move no more so long as never vas." Moses was happy. Alas! a week face pallid with terror and with anger flashing in his eye, and standing be-

"Gif back de rent and let me go." yours bees a ghost?" "Pshaw!" said Moses. "These ignorant critters have been telling you haystack in a state of delirious ter-

GALLIPOLIS, OHIO, FEBRUARY 6, 1868. Oh: the green things growing! the green things growing: the green things growing:

The fresh sweet smell of the green things growing:

I would like to live, whether I laugh or grieve, To watch the happy life of the green things grow.

Den mc comes. "What did happen?"

Den mc comes. "What did happen?"

Den mc comes. "What did happen?"

"I see a ghost," says he.

things growing!
Talking each to each when-so man's knowing:
In the wonderful white of the wierd moonlight,
Or the gray dreamy dawn when the cocks are dis night" never vas. Me says dis is de lager the cellar, with the mute, mute comfort of green things in his head. Next night me laughs It was a damp, wretched hole, not--comes the ghost again; a wo- unused for years because of its conman mit a childs. Mrs. Spragenhau- dition, and extremely dark-a ghost And in the fall wealth of their olossoms glow ing.

Ten for one I take they're on me bestowing:

Ah! I should like to see, if God's will it might more. Den she tell de neighbors. descried a gaunt figure at the farther 'Veil, vell,' dey say, 'Mr. Pocketfull end, the bravest felt a strong dispogrowing: Though earth to earth return, I think I shall not cheat! Pocketfull. "There sin't any such form in an iron grip, and held her-anyhow.

But though the month's rent never was returned, the German moved what are you doing here?" next day. And to cut a long story | And a faint voice answered: short, Mr. Pocketfull's house was thereafter occupied by no one long- is your daughter, Ann." Therefore it may not surprise you to er than a week. Strangers would And Moses Pocketfull staggered Therefore it may not surprise your of hear that in a certain portion of hire it and, witnessing the strange back with a groan.

Staten Island, which shall be nameliess, there stood and still stands an depart in terror—persons ignorant truth known at last. The miser's old farm house, which according to about this, or tempted by the low daughter, to whom, because of her the belief of the whole village, was rent to which the dwelling came, marriage with a poor man, he had rethrough its reputation. Even a cler fused aid and shelter in her woman-It belonged to a gentleman who, gyman, who, being of the Metho hood, driven to desperation, had though enormously wealthy, was redist belief, protested that if even concealed herself in this deserted celand whose fondness for money was evident trepidation on the third den, subsisting on such food as she so great that he had disowned a morning of his residence, utterly respendthrift son and a daughter who fusing to tell what had driven him on a bundle of straw in the dark and had married a poor man, lest they away, and endeavoring to lead peo- unaired place, until bad air and starshould claim assistance at his hands, ple to the belief that damp and noth- vation had made her ghastly enough ing else caused him to fly the spot .- to be indeed taken for a spectre. A The effort was useless; every one helpless, useless sort of woman, she > gain for it, its old comfortable repullisteners that popular opinion grew tation as a respectable dwelling, void too strong for even old Moses to reof ghosts.

A more rapacious landlord never lived. His rents were collected the against superstition very moment upon which they came At last no one would approach the hoping in the end to become its sole due, and nothing troubled him so house, and old Pocketfull, at his wit's occupant. much as to be requested to make reend, with his house profitless and She was worn to a skeleton, and pairs. And this particular house to his feelings deeply injured, went to a seemed to have but little hold upon lawyer for advice.

"Pay some one to sleep there," sions, he made provision for his etfull to ride to the bank with his said the lawyer. "Let this be known, daughter and her child, and installrents on quarter day-perhaps the and at a moderate rent you can let ed them comfortably in the house To hear evil tales about your best your house at once."

slandered, or your brother, or your there without misadventure. No wife, As you might feel should any one eppeared. He offered ten; then one scandalize those relatives to you, of entry and occupancy for a quantor day Mrs. Ruff, tenant of his of the country day Mrs. Ruff, tenant of his of th a place to be occupied on any terms. future cavalry commander. He was best and dearest house, said as she He had done more harm than good, lifted by some other boys, in pure and in desperation he advanced from mischief, on the back of a very "I shall bear it no longer-I can't, thirty to fifty, to seventy five, to one vicious horse, without saddle or bri hundred. Then there marched into dle. Away the steed started, leaped his room one morning three young over a fence into the road, and ran fellows, strangers to the place, who at tremendous speed for several stated that they had seen the adver- miles. "Little Phil" clung firmly to tisement and were afraid of nothing; the horses mane; until the animal and overjoyed, Moses gave them the suddenly turned into the shed of a and a day! It isn't the repairs. The keys, and bid them do their best, tavern, where its owner had often garret leaks, and we need plastering; even if the rats did squeak and rat- stopped in his travel. Men came out, but I don't wish to move for those the behind the wainscot not to fancy looked at the foaming horse, without ghosts about them. And that night saddle or bridle, then at the boy on it was known that three strangers his back, and then one said to the were to sleep in Moses Pocketfull's unterrified Phil: haunted house, to prove that the ghost either had departed or never had been there at all.

They were young men, full of fun on a horse?!" asked another. "It's haunted, sir," said Mrs. Ruff. and not in the least apprehensive of And then came stories of noises any supernatural visitation. To se- hold on with my knees and I did." heard at midnight, of loaves of bread cure their comfort they conveyed to and pitchers of milk vanishing as the haunted house a large mattress if by magic-of groans, and means, and sundry blankets, and having er, but the horse wouldn't go." and knockings, and at last of an aw eaten a hearty supper in the desolate own companions, and when sufficiently awakened to know what was pas-So, rave as Moses Pocketfull might, sing around him, found himself alone. nature, in every vegetable and aniand yow as he might that the woman Something had evidently alarmed mal form, a curved form is recognizwas mad and that no ghost ever his comrades for they had flown, ed. The margin of every leaf, the them, overcome with terror which he somewhere on its exterior a segment could not explain to himself, longing of a circle. There are no strait lines, for human presence for relief and either inside or outside. All the vesnot daring to remain alone in the sels circulating fluids are round, or empty room. He descended the at least presents curves of various stairs, calling upon his friends, but diameters although they may not at hearing no reply, and stood at last first appear to be so. An exception in the empty kitchen. The moon- is noticeable in what is called by anto her bosom, and looking at him which are convex on the outer surwith hollow eyes which seemed to face; water, running in waves, assumpierce bim through and through. The young man stood still.

Their slumbers were deep, and the rats scampered and the shutters flapped without awakening them for a long time. the three was startled from his lameness, which lasted several days.

the darkness.

But the moment that it passed bim fore Moses, demanded that he he stretched out his hand and caught "You must be crazy," sail Moses. woolen shawl, and on the instant his ance and have witnessed a great deal "Yah," said the German. "I courage returned. He followed the of it." makes crazy ven I lives mit a ghost! flying figure, and saw it descend the Vat for you never tell in dis house of cellar stairs, and then he secured the door and went in search of his companions whom he found hidden in a lost his arm?"

"Nobody tells me," said the Ger- At first no explanation could inman. "I goes in mine house and I duce them to face the ghost, whom bees comfortable; I has mine good they were pursuaded was at their of it."

friend and ve drinks lager and heels; but finally they withdrew their History of the Ohio Company, smokes our meerschaum and plays heads, from the sheltering hay my trombone and sings, and goes to and listened to the assertion that throng of curious neighbors had been "You got little too much lager summoned to the spot. Then, rend-mine friend," says I. Says he: ered courageous by numbers, the ered courageous by numbers, the "No. It was a ghost. I must go door was opened, and the little prois night." cession, provided with lamps and "Away he goes. Me laugh so as clubs, penetrated to the recesses of know dis. He know dere is a ghost sition to retreat. But Moses Pocketdereven he let his house.' Gif me full, furious in his anger against the ck mine monies; you are one such great pecuniary loss to him, advanced and seized the shrinking a contract, with the Board of Treasury of the United States, for a particular of the containing in the back mine monies; you are one being who had been the cause of things as ghosts-in this country her babe wailing in her arms-as the rest gathered round. "Who are you?" he cried, "and

"Don't you know me, father? It knew that the Rev. -had seen the had never thought it possible to carn ghost, especially when he preached her own bread, and had, to the best on the next Sunday a furious sermon of her ability, encouraged the terror of those whe inhabited the house, life, and her piteous tale excited How should he let his house-how such sympathy in the breast of her sist. And so, of his large posses they had so long haunted, to which, And Moses decided to act upon the with all the rest of his real estate, and dearest is not pleasant. You advice. He offered ten dollars to they became heirs at his death, your children any one or two who would sleep which occurred shortly afterwards. GEN. SHERIDAN AS A Boy. - When

"Who learned you to ride?" "Nobody," said the boy. "Did no one teach you how to sit "O, yes; Bill Seymour told me to

"Wasn't you frightened?" "Not a bit. I wanted to go farth-"Ain't you sore, boy?"

"Kinder; but I'll be better to-morrow and then I'll ride back home.' The horse had unseated many excellent horsemen; but Phil Sheridan was quite eager to ride him home-But at last the soundest sleeper of wards, and cared nothing for his own

CURVED LINES .- How remarkable

it is that throughout the domain of shaft of every tree-and, in fact, Starting to his feet, he followed every internal organ - represents es segments also of circles; the earth revolves on its axis; and the whole thoughts were in his mind, the spec- circle, around a central point of uniall.

Do you believe in the apat it. His fingers closed upon sub- pearance of spirits?" "No," said stance-upon the rough fringe of a Josh. "I believe in their disappear

> An inquisitive chap asked a soldier with an empty sleeve "how he

"In a threshing machine," replied the soldier. "Were you running the machine?"

"Well, no; Gen. Grant had charge and its Purchase.

COPIED FOR THE JOURNAL.

(Continued.) At a meeting of the Ohio Company, in Boston, March 8th, 1787, it was unanimously

Resolved, That three directors should be appointed for the Company, and that it shall be their duty immediately to make application to the Honourable Congress for a private purchase of lands. Generals Samuel H. Parsons, Rufus Putnam and the Rev. Manassah Cutler, were unanimously township, of the same range, (being

At a meeting of the directors and agents of the Ohio Company at Boston, August 29th, 1787, the following and the residue be drawn for, as Manassah Cutler:

lar tract of land, containing in the whole, as much as the company's funds will pay for, should the subscriptions amount to one million of dollars, agreeably to the articles of great road through the covert way association, at one dollar per acre, from which price is to be deducted one third of a dollar for bad lands, and defraying the expenses of surveying, &c., &c. That this land be bounded on the East by the Western boundary of the seventh range of townships; South by the Ohio; West by a meridian line drawn through the Western cape of the Great Kanawha river, and extending so far North, that a due East and West line from the seventh range of townships, to said meridian line, shall include the whole. This tract to be extended so far Northerly, as to comprehend within its limits, exclusively of the above persons, and also, in the gardens anpurchase, one lot of six hundred nexed to the same. and forty acres, in each township, for the purposes of religion, an equal quantity for the support of schools, and two townships of twenty-three thousand and forty acres each, for the sale or transfer of any shares an university, to be as near the center having been made, shall be produced of the whole tract as may be, which to him, record the same, in the comlots and townships are given by Con- pany's book uses, forever: Also, three lots of six hundred 650 shares were represented, it was and forty acres each, in every township, reserved for the future disposition of Congress: and the county lands of the military associates, to duced, the number of shares, combe comprised within the whole tract: pesing the Ohio Company, be en-provided they do not exceed one- tered in all the future draughts, eight seventh part thereof. That five hundred thousand dol-upon closing the contract. that as soon as the Geographer, or the Ohio Company, that the earliest some proper officer of the United provision may be made to supply the States, shall have surveyed and as deficiencies. certained the quantity of the whole, the sum of five hundred thousand dollars more be paid, amounting in the total, to one million of dollars, for which the company are to be put in possession of the other moiety of the lands above described, and receive a deed of the whole from the

Resolved, That the proceedings of Mr. Cutler be fully ratified, and confirmed.

the following resolutions were agreed That five thousand seven hundred commons. That within the said tract, and in itation by business men. the most eligible situation, there be appropriated for a city, sixty squares of three hundred and sixty feet, by our citizens, who pride themselves three hundred and sixty feet each, in on their peculiar knowledge and abilan oblong form, of ten squares in ity as traders were taken in and done front and six in depth, with streets for, one day last week, by a young of one hundred feet in width through | man from the country. The young each. That four of said squares be man exhibited for sale what our reserved for public uses, and the re traders supposed were two nicely sand and eight lots.

lots.

vember, 1787, it was Resolved, That the lands of the ing .- Vinton Record. Ohio Company be allotted and divided in the following manner; anylight lay across it, for the window atomists, the longitudinal sinus, thing to the contrary in former reso- in supposing the Governor of Ohio and door were both wide open and which carries the blood out of the lutions, notwithstanding, viz: Four has the veto power. The Democrain the mellow beams stood an object head that has been carried there by thousand acres near the confluence cy have full swing-all the powers which curdled the blood of the spec- four arteries. It is nearly triangular of the Ohio and Muskingum rivers, and all the responsibility of the Legtator. The spectral form of a wo- but its direction is the arc of the cir- for a city and commens, and contigue islative Department in Ohio for the man, tall and gaunt, holding a babe cie. Sound moves in wavelets, ous to this, one thousand lots of next two years. We shall expect to thousand acres. mouth of the Muskingum river beso This will be not only in accordance "It is true then," he thought, solar system moves with incompre- laid out into oblong squares, as that with the promises of a party while "such things are seen by mortal eyes. hensible momentum around the sun. each house lot shall consist of ninety in the minority, but will do a great Will it speak to me? Will it ap. Still further, astronomers believe the feet in front, and one hundred and deal to make capital for it, by enproach me?" and even as these starry heavens are coursing in a vast eighty feet in depth, with an alley of couraging the wool business .- Columten feet in width through each square bus Jouanal. tre moved, coming toward him with versal attraction, which may be call in its oblong direction; and that the vance the tenant arrived at his land-lord's dwelling with his rubicund eyes upon his face, and vanished in thing to the contrary in former reso lutions, notwithstanding Resolved, That the eight acre lots country I love."

be surveyed. November 23d, 1787. For the purpose of carrying into ORDERED, That four surveyors be employed, under the direction of the superintendent hereinafter named. That Col. Ebenezer Sproat, Mr. Anselm Tupper, Mr. John Matthews and Col. R. J. Meigs, be the survey-

That General Rufus Putnam be the superintendent.

Number 12 (Norm:-The first settlers landed at Marietts, 7th April, 1788.) At a meeting of the directors and agents at Marietta, on the 2d day of July, 1788, when were present-Gen's Samuel H. Parsons, Rufus Putnam, Direct'rs James M. Varnum, and John May, Winthrop Sargent and others, agents, representing 669 shares, when it was Resolved. That the lots 24 and 30.

and the fractional parts of 35 and 36, of township No. 2, in the 8th range, and No. 19, 25, and 20, and the fractional part of 31, in the 3d in commons annexed to the city, be laid out into one thousand and five three acre lots, five of which shall ston as may be. Resolved, That the city near the confluence of the Ohio and Muskingum, be called Marietta. That the reserved public square in the city, including the buildings at the blockhouses, be called Campus Martius; the elevated square No. 11, Quadranou; No. 19, Capitolium, and square No. 61, Cecelia; and that the to Quadranou be called Sacra Via. At a meeting of the agents at Marietta, December 3d, 1788, it was Resolved. That so much of the lands in townships No. 1, 2, 3, 4, in the 8th and 9th ranges, and No. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, in the 10th range, as will amount to 160 acres to a share, in the funds of the Ohio Company, be divided as soon as possible.

At a meeting of the agents at Marietta, March 2d, 1789, it was Resolved. That the directors be. and they are hereby authorized to sell the interest the Company have in the lands in Campus Martius, on which houses are built by private At a meeting of the sgents at Marietta, October 26th. 1789, it was Resolved, That the secretary to the company, when the evidence of gress, and appropriated for the above At a meeting of the agents November 25th, 1795, at which time

Resolved unanimously. That from the most accurate returns which have been obtained, and documents pro-hundred and seventeen. Resolved unanimously, That the lars be paid to the Board of Treasury, superintendent of surveys, be requested to lay before this meeting, In consideration of which, a right as soon as may be, an exact list of price stipulated, be given. And, lots, remaining to the proprietors of

> Adjourned. TO BE CONTINUED.

WORTHY OF IMITATION .- An exchange says: We notice the fact that there is a merchant, in the town in which the paper is printed, who, whenever a man buys a good bill of said Board of Treasury. Whereupon, goods from him, makes the purchaser a present of the village paper, in which he advertises, for one year, and thus he manages to keep the customer continually reminded of his business, and he will never for-Adjourned till August 30th, when get such a present. Should that man give his customer two dollars in greenbacks or goods it might soon be forgotten; but when he is once a and sixty acres of land near the con- week, for fifty-two weeks, placed in fluence of the Muskingum and Ohio receipt of his friend's bounty, can rivers, be reserved for a city and any one doubt it's being a good way to advertise? This is worthy of im-

A rumor is affoat that two of maining fifty-six divided into house dressed rabbits. They invested, took That each square contain their "rabbits" home, cooked and twelve house lots of sixty feet front ate them. One of the parties disand one hundred feet depth, and six covered afterwards that their "rablots of fifty-three and three tenths bits" were skunks, and informed No.

feet, by one hundred and eighty feet, 2. It is curious to note the effect of amounting in the total to one thou- the knowledge upon our two traders. One swears vengeance, while the At a meeting of the directors and other will not acknowledge that he agents, in Boston, on the 21st of No- was beaten in the trade, but protests that he knew just what he was buy-

The Oberlin News is mistaken eight acres each, amounting to eight see taxes reduced to nothing, and every tax-payer presented with a new Resolved, That the city at the flannel shirt before that time expires.

> An Irishman who hung out a striped petticoat for a flag, and was asked what it meant. "Why, sure," said he, "it's the imblim of the > Rev. Thomas K. Beecher gives the following expression to an un-doubted fact: "The less a man knows, and the more liquor he drinks, the more determined he is to make this 'a white man's government.' " go Cuffy says he'd rather die in a railroad smash up than a steamboat burst up, for this reason: "If you gets off and smashed up, dar you is, but if you gets blown up on the boat whar is you?"

HORSE-SHOEING, &c.,